

Travis Credit Union California Consumer Privacy Act Notice at Collection for Consumers

To comply with regulatory obligations under the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA), Travis Credit Union (TCU) is required to notify individuals who are parties to accounts/loans of the categories of personal information that TCU may collect and how the personal information may be used.

Information TCU Collects and Uses

Category	Examples	Purpose
Personal Identifiers	Name, address, phone number, email address, tax ID number, driver's license number, date of birth	Verify your identity and contact you regarding the application status and process; provide you information, financial products, or services; and to maintain your accounts
Protected Classifications	Gender, ethnicity, race	Comply with equal opportunity lending laws
Financial	Personal financial statements, bank account number, income	Assess your initial and/or ongoing qualifications for a financial product or service
Commercial Information	Records of personal property, products or services purchased, obtained, or considered, or other purchasing histories or tendencies	Assess your qualifications for a financial product or service
Internet Activity	IP address	Maintain security
Inferences to Create a Profile	Credit scores, bankruptcy insight scores	Assess your qualifications for a financial product or service and evaluate your financial standing with Travis Credit Union
Geolocation Data	Physical location or movements.	Maintain security and for notification purposes
Sensory Data	Audio, electronic, visual, thermal, or similar information	Verify or enhance the quality or safety of TCU products and services

TCU protects the privacy of personal information collected in accordance with applicable state and federal laws. For details on the information TCU collects and uses to provide financial products and services, view TCU's California Consumer Privacy Act Policy at www.traviscu.org/compliance/ccpa-policy. For questions about this notice, contact TCU at (800) 877-8328.